

INTRODUCTION

Banaras Hindu University, the largest among the residential universities of India, has the distinction of providing residential accommodation to about 16080 students in as many as 79 hostels. Most of the hostels have been named after dignitaries who have been associated with the university or who have been donors to a particular hostel. A large number of renowned personalities like Prof. C.N.R. Rao, Devender Lal, U.R. Rao, Sri Jagjivan Ram and many others occupying various important positions in the sphere of industry, business, administration, academia, civil services, science and law world over have resided in the hostels of this university.

The five Institutes and eighteen Faculties have a definite number of hostels under their control. There is a Triveni complex of six girls hostels (Ganga, Yamuna, Saraswati, Godawari, Gomti and Kaveri) which accommodates female students of different courses including research scholars of different faculties/institutes. The intake capacity of individual hostel varies from 36 students (Siddharth Vihar International Boys Hostel) to 628 students (New PG Girls Hostel of Multi Faculty) out of the total 79 hostels, 39 are for girls.

Among Institutes/Faculties, Faculty of Science which has 5 boys and 5 girls hostels with intake capacity of as many as 2746 students has largest number of Hostels. Its Broacha hostel, a magnificent heritage building is capable of providing accommodation to over 520 students. The Faculty of Arts and Faculty of Social Science, with 5 and 5 hostels respectively, accommodate about 1321 and 1001 students. The Institute of Medical Sciences and Agricultural Sciences have provision for residential accommodation for about 2041 and 842 students, respectively. The Institute of Medical Sciences and Faculty of Science have separate hostels for their female students. Other faculties have quota for female post graduate students in Triveni complex. Mahila Mahavidhyalaya commands about half a dozen hostels for post graduate (PG) and under graduate (UG) students. The PG (Jyoti Kunj Girls) hostel has a three-story building and accommodates over 280 students.

The hostels in general are located along the road linking BHU main gate, Mahila Maha Vidhyalaya, Malviya Bhawan, V.C. lodge etc. The addition of hostels took place later on in the rear side of the hostels along the adjoining roads. The trees on both sides of roads and the lawns in front as well as inside the hostels add grandeur to their lay out. Between the main hostel road and the Faculty buildings are situated in series of play grounds belonging to different faculties. Perhaps, the founder of this great university, Pandit Madan Mohan Malviyaji's vision behind such a lay out was to provide the opportunity to resident students to play in the evening and in its turn to achieve the goal of promotion of games and sports and keeping the students physically fit. All the hostels are equipped with common rooms which are used for watching. T.V. programmes and organizing cultural activities such as debates, quizzes. Newspapers, magazines are also kept there for reading. Mess/canteen facility is available in all the hostels. In addition, canteens are also located at a number of places which cater to the needs of the students. Each hostel is equipped with indoor game facilities like table tennis, badminton, volley ball etc. Inter-hostel competitions are organized for various games with the help of Sports Board. Similarly, integrated cultural programmes are arranged at faculty and university level through Dean of Students Office. The university has a large gymnasium named Shivaji Hall located in front of Broacha hostel. In addition to it, there is a sports complex at Amphitheatre ground which is a common sport and game facility for all. It also includes an indoor stadium and J.K. Hall for badminton. Hostellers have access to the swimming pool of the university situated behind C.V. Raman Hostel. The magnificent Sayajirao Central library is an asset to students. The shopping centre complex branch of State Bank of India and Bank of Baroda branch (IMS, BHU) are particularly established to serve requirement of students.

The Dean of Students is over-all in charge of welfare activities of the hostels and the Dean of the concerned Faculty is head of the hostels falling under the faculty. He/She governs the functioning through a Co-ordinator (one for the concerned faculty), one Administrative Warden and suitable number of Wardens (for each hostel). Every hostel of the university is provided with lobby servants, sweepers and gardener. Every hostel has an office with adequate staff. Electric and water supply is looked after by EWS department while repair and minor construction is responsibility of UWD. Students are provided the medical and health facilities through Students' Health Centre.
