GREETINGS FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Welcome to the 120th University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Commencement.

This is the day to recognize our graduating students' academic efforts and remarkable personal commitment. As you look around, you can appreciate our need for two ceremonies in a venue the size of the UWM Panther Arena.

In celebrating our graduates, we also look to these outstanding individuals with a great sense of anticipation. At some campuses, the work and impact of a university is viewed as complete when students graduate. This is not the case at UWM. Our students, alumni, faculty and staff are engaged in lifelong research, critical thinking and collaboration with businesses, industries, non-profit organizations, and other educational institutions in the region and across the globe. These partnerships drive innovation and create jobs for our students after they graduate. They have set the bar higher for new levels of cooperation, innovation and entrepreneurship. An academic degree brings newfound opportunities and exceptional value to both the recipient and the wider community.

On behalf of the UWM faculty and staff, I congratulate all of today's graduating students. When combined with those who graduated in December, the Class of 2019 is an impressive 5,000+ students.

To all our guests here to witness today's event, I thank you for supporting your adult child, relative, spouse, partner, or friend. And to all our graduates, I offer my best wishes in all your endeavors. Please keep us posted on your many successes.

Best regards,

THE STORY OF THE UWM SEAL

Official ceremonial activities and actions of the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee nearly always make use of the UWM seal. It can be found on all significant university documents. The key elements of the UWM corporate seal are the university’s logo in the center and the years above the word “Milwaukee.”

The logo was redesigned in 1999 to more distinctly represent the university. Distinguishing elements of the redesigned logo include the different typefaces used for the letters “UW” and “M,” which reflect the diversity inherent at UW-Milwaukee, and the overlapping of the “W” and the “M” to show the connection between the University of Wisconsin System and Milwaukee’s university. The two wavy banners below the letters “UWM” show movement and suggest a continuum of education throughout one’s life. The banners also represent waves and emphasize how Milwaukee and the campus are located near water. The nimbus, appearing behind the logo, symbolizes educational enlightenment.

The three years noted in the corporate seal are 1849, 1885 and 1956.

1849 represents the era that higher education began in this state. Wisconsin became the 30th state in the union on May 29, 1848. Less than two months later, on July 26, the University of Wisconsin was established under provisions in the new state constitution. One of the initial steps to prepare students for university was enrolling young people in preparatory classes. On February 5, 1849, 17 boys arrived for preparatory classes in space borrowed from the Madison Female Academy. This date is referred to in Wisconsin education as Founders Day. Then, in autumn 1850, the first University of Wisconsin freshman class assembled in Madison for first-year instruction as part of a four-year college curriculum.

1885 denotes the beginnings of public higher education in Milwaukee at the Milwaukee State Normal School. The Wisconsin legislature in 1880 approved expanding higher education by establishing nine normal schools around the state. The first students in Milwaukee were admitted in 1885. In the beginning, curriculum was limited to a two-year teacher-training program. As its educational mission evolved, the school’s name changed. It became the Milwaukee State Teachers College in 1927 and the Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, in 1951.

1956 signals the beginning of the modern era of public higher education in Milwaukee. During the late 1940s and early 1950s, many proposals to expand higher education offerings in Milwaukee were considered. The successful proposal approved in 1955 combined the previously mentioned Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, and the Milwaukee office of the University Extension Center, an auxiliary of the University of Wisconsin in Madison. The new university was considered a part of the University of Wisconsin and classes at the new University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee began in the fall of 1956.

A QUICK HISTORY OF UWM

The name has changed—several times—but the roots of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee go back to 1885 when Wisconsin established the Milwaukee Normal School, a two-year teacher's college.

Some important dates:

- 1885 Milwaukee Normal School opens to train teachers in downtown Milwaukee at 18th & Wells
- 1892 University of Wisconsin offers day and evening classes in Milwaukee
- 1909 With the completion of a new Milwaukee Normal School building (today's Mitchell Hall) the campus moves to its present location
- 1920 The University of Wisconsin Extension Division, formed in 1907, takes over responsibility for UW instruction in Milwaukee
- 1927 Normal school becomes Milwaukee State Teachers College with 4-year degree
- 1928 UW Extension opens Milwaukee Center downtown
- 1951 Milwaukee State Teachers College becomes Wisconsin State College with liberal arts degrees
- 1956 WSC & UW Milwaukee Extension merge to form UWM
- 1961 The 8.6-acre Milwaukee-Downer Seminary site, including 3 buildings, is purchased
- 1963 UWM offers first PhD degree, in mathematics
- 1964 UWM buys Milwaukee-Downer College buildings, expands campus
- 1965 UWM purchases the 6.3-acre Milwaukee University School campus
- 1970 Three residence towers, collectively called Sandburg Halls, open for student housing
- 1988 UW System designates eight Centers of Excellence at UWM
- 1995 Division of Outreach and Continuing Education Extension (now the School of Continuing Education) moves to new offices in the downtown Plankinton Building
- 2000 UWM awards diploma to 125,000th graduate; UWM named among top 102 public doctoral research universities in nation
- 2001 Governor announces honors academy at UWM
- 2002 Helene Zelazo Center for the Performing Arts opens. Fourth tower added to Sandburg Residence Halls.
- 2005 Men's basketball team advances to Sweet 16 in NCAA Tournament.
- 2006 $100-million Campaign for UWM announced. Pavilion athletics complex and Kenilworth Square mixed-use student housing facility open. Men's and women's basketball teams both advance to NCAA Tournament.
- 2008 Campaign for UWM is completed more than a year early with $125 million pledged to the university.
- 2010 The School of Freshwater Sciences and Zilber School of Public Health become the first new academic schools established at UWM since the 1960s. UWM acquires the former Columbia Hospital campus: 11 acres; seven buildings with more than 800,000 gross square feet of space; and about 900 parking spaces.
- 2016 UWM is named a top-tier Research 1 (R1) doctoral university by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. This honor includes UWM as one of 115 top-tier research universities among the nation's 4600+ institutions, and only one of two in Wisconsin.

By the turn of the century, the school had expanded to offer programs in the liberal arts and science as well as education. By the '30's, the school, now called Milwaukee State Teachers College, was a national leader in innovative teacher education, with 1,500 students. A student from the 1916-17 academic year, Golda Meir, became prime minister of Israel from 1969-1974.

After World War II, the College was authorized to award four-year bachelor degrees and in 1951 became Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee. Five years later it combined with the Milwaukee Extension Center, which had been the local outreach program of the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee. Together, the two institutions became the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, with its focus on academic research, teaching and community service.

Since its founding, UWM has expanded its programs so that today its 14 schools and colleges offer 94 undergraduate programs, 53 masters and 32 doctoral degrees.

CHANCELLOR'S MEDALLION

The medallion for Chancellor Mark Mone was designed and fabricated by Frankie Flood, Associate Professor of Art and Design, after talking with Chancellor Mone about his vision for UWM's future. With water from Lake Michigan in its center chamber – and spheres representing how student knowledge grows at UW-Milwaukee – the Chancellor's Medallion is full of symbolism specific to UWM.

THE MEANING OF ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic gowns were worn as early as the 12th century. Their primary purpose then was to protect the wearer against the elements. When accepted styles of dress began to change in the 16th century, those in the legal and medical professions as well as scholars in the universities retained the traditional dress of gowns and hoods. The origin of the cap is unclear.

Styles and colors had no particular meaning until 1895 when an "Intercollegiate Code" established design and color criteria. The bachelor's gown has long, pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The master's gown has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist; the rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, the front part has an arc cut away. The gown may be worn open or closed. The doctor's gown has velvet down the front with three bars of the same velvet across the sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

The academic hood is the visual representation of the academic degree. The level of the degree is indicated by the length of the hood and the width of its velvet edging, with the doctoral hood being the largest. The color of the lining of the hood denotes the school conferring the degree, the color of the velvet binding denotes the field of study. The color denoting the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is gold, dark blue is the color denoting philosophy; therefore, all recipients of the Doctor of Philosophy degree (Ph.D.) at UWM wear hoods lined with gold and trimmed in dark blue velvet.

Other trim colors that you may observe among the masters candidates and the faculty are:

BLUE VIOLET—Architecture	LEMON—Library & Information Science
WHITE—Art	PINK—Music
BROWN—Art/Dance/Drama	APRICOT—Nursing
BEIGE—Business Administration	SALMON—Public Health
LIGHT BLUE—Education	GOLD—Science
ORANGE—Engineering/Computer Science	CITRON—Social Work/Criminal Justice
PEACOCK—Human Resources and Labor Relations

Honors: The gold cord, worn by some of the bachelor's degree candidates, identifies those students who have been awarded Commencement Honors for high academic achievement throughout their career at UWM. An asterisk (*) is directly after the names of bachelor's degree candidates awarded Commencement Honors in this program.

The pewter-colored stole recognizes undergraduate students receiving the Honor's Degree. This special diploma is awarded in recognition of outstanding academic achievement to students who have completed the requirements of the University Honors College and achieved an overall grade point average of 3.5 or above.

The red, white, and blue cord is being worn by our veterans and military service members.

The black and gold stole worn by some undergraduate students, identifies our McNair Scholars, our future leaders who come from first generation and diverse backgrounds. These students have completed a selective and rigorous research program that prepares them to enter graduate school.

BLACK AND GOLD CEREMONY COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

MARK ATTANASIO

Co-founder and Managing Partner, Crescent Capital Group LP
Chairman and Principal Owner, Milwaukee Brewers

MARK ATTANASIO is the Chairman and Principal Owner of the Milwaukee Brewers, currently in his fifteenth season, and co-Founder and Managing Partner of Crescent Capital Group, an employee-owned alternative asset manager and registered investment advisor with approximately $25 billion in assets under management and over 160 employees.

Mark and his wife Debbie are active members of the community in Milwaukee and Los Angeles. Upon purchasing the Brewers, they established the Brewers Community Foundation (“BCF”) to positively impact the lives of children and families, focusing on nonprofits that provide quality programming in the areas of health, education, recreation and basic needs. Over the past nine years, BCF has provided over 1800 grants, totaling over $17.5M, to nonprofit organizations focused on the Wisconsin community. Mark is a trustee of Heal the Bay; The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA); Harvard-Westlake School; and LA2028, the Bid Committee that is bringing the 2028 Olympic Games to Los Angeles. In addition to BCF, the Attanasio family has provided financial support to over 200 charitable organizations with a focus similar to BCF.

In addition, Mark has served on the President’s Leadership Council at Brown University for a decade and is currently a member of Major League Baseball’s Executive Council, Labor Policy Committee and Chairman of its Investment Committee.

Mark received an A.B. From Brown University and a J.D. from Columbia University School of Law.

BLACK CEREMONY HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

MARION E. BROOME

Dean and Vice Chancellor for Nursing Affairs, School of Nursing, Duke University
Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs, Duke University Health System
Dean and Ruby Wilson Professor, School of Nursing, Duke University

Honorary Doctor of Science in Nursing Leadership

Escorted by: Kim Litwack, Dean
College of Nursing

MARION E. BROOME PhD, RN, FAAN, is Dean and Ruby F. Wilson Professor of Nursing for Duke University School of Nursing and Vice Chancellor for Nursing Affairs at Duke University. She also holds the title of Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs for Nursing at Duke University Health System. Prior to joining Duke in August 2014, Dr. Broome was Dean of the Indiana University School of Nursing and Associate Vice-President for Nursing at Indiana University Health for 10 years, where she was awarded the rank of distinguished professor.

Widely regarded as an expert, scholar and leader in pediatric nursing research and practice, Dr. Broome was funded externally by the American Cancer Society, the National Institutes of Health and various foundations for two decades. Her research developed and tested interventions designed to assist children to cope with acute and chronic pain, informed consent and assent for children in research, research misconduct in clinical trials and, most recently, ethical dilemmas in publishing and leadership of nurse executives. Dr. Broome's research is published in more than 119 papers in 58 refereed nursing, medicine and interdisciplinary journals. She also has published seven books and 20 chapters.

Since 2004, Dr. Broome co-lead academic-practice partnerships in two leading academic health centers, at Indiana University Health and Duke Health. She and her colleague, Linda Everett, CNO for IU Health, were awarded the highly competitive Sigma Theta Tau International award for academic-practice partnerships in 2013. In 2017 Duke University CNO, Dr. Mary Ann Fuchs, and Dr. Broome were again selected for the highly competitive Sigma International award for academic-practice partnerships. She has published several papers, chapters and books on leadership in nursing. Her two most recent books related to practice setting leadership include Sitterding, M. C. & Broome, M. (Eds.) (2015). Information Overload: Framework, Tips, and Tools to Manage in Complex Healthcare Environments, which was selected as an AJN Book of the Year for 2016. Her text Marshall, E., & Broome, M. E. (2017). Transformational Leadership in Nursing: From Expert Clinician to Influential Leader. Springer Publishing Company is used in doctor of nursing practice programs all over the U.S.

Dr. Broome has held several leadership positions in the field. She served a four-year term as an appointed member of the Nursing Science Study Section at the National Institutes of Health, was president of the Society for Pediatric Nurses and served on governing boards of the Association for the Care of Children's Health and the Midwest Nursing Research Society. She is currently a member of the Board of Commissioners for the National Council for Accreditation and a board member of the Institute for Child Success headquartered in Greenville, SC. Currently, Dr. Broome is editor-in-chief of Nursing Outlook, the official journal of the American Academy of Nursing (AAN) and the Council for the Advancement of Nursing Science. She has consulted for a variety of educational and health systems to develop leadership capacity including the NIH Clinical Center, University of Alabama Hospital, Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago, John F Kennedy Medical Center in Monrovia, Liberia, University of Technology in Sydney, Australia and the STTI Maternal-Child Leadership Academy.

Dr. Broome received her BSN from the Medical College of Georgia, her MSN from the University of South Carolina and her PhD from the University of Georgia. Her formal leadership training includes a variety of leadership training courses while serving in the Army Nurse Corp (1973-2000), a Management and Leadership in Education (MLE) Certificate from Harvard University in 2006 and the Center for Creative Leadership "Leading for Organizational Leadership Course" in 2013.

MARY KELLNER

Educator, Counselor, Mental Health Advocate and Philanthropist

Honorary Doctor of Educational Psychology

Escorted by: Alan Shoho, Dean
School of Education

MARY KELLNER received her BS in Elementary Education in 1968 at UW-Madison, and her master's in guidance and counseling from the School of Education at UWM in 1978. She completed her doctorate in education at Cardinal Stritch in 2007. Her research documented some of the cultural aspects of an effective MPS elementary school. She has taught elementary school and been an elementary guidance counselor, but the last 20 years have been spent volunteering and doing board work at numerous not-for profit organizations such as Next Door, UW Milwaukee Foundation, The Nehemiah Project, Schools That Can Milwaukee, The I Have A Dream program and, most recently, Pathways High, a new project based high school in Milwaukee. She was a trustee for the Faye McBeath Foundation for 10 years and is a trustee of Cardinal Stritch University. She also spends considerable time working with the Kelben Foundation, a family foundation that she presides over. The foundation has funded thousands of scholarships for needy high school seniors, endowments for professorships, and many other educational and health initiatives. Mary is committed to helping address the achievement gap that Milwaukee's children are facing in addition to some of the other disparities that exist in the community.
